EU SUMMIT REACHED A SIGNIFICANT DEAL A FIRST STEP FORWARD MACRON SAID

TO SOLVE MIGRANT CRISIS

Paris, Washington DC, 30.06.2018, 01:27 Time

USPA NEWS - The European Leaders reached an unprecedented agreement to solve the migrant crisis, during the European Council held in Brussels on June 28-29th. President Macron said it was a “significant agreement, and a first step forward“. This European Council was of high level of importance during the tensions due to the divergent positions, about the migrant situation. Even Europe´s future was put in a balance versus the challenge of humanity and efficient legal migration, according to the European rules. Leaders agreed that this was a challenge not only for a single EU country, but for Europe as a whole. The European Council called for further measures to reduce illegal migration and prevent a return to the uncontrolled flows of 2015.

President Macron said it was a “significant agreement, and a first step forward“. This European Council was of high level of importance during the tensions due to the divergent positions, about the migrant situation. Even Europe´s future was put in a balance versus the challenge of humanity and efficient legal migration, according to the European rules. Leaders agreed that this was a challenge not only for a single EU country, but for Europe as a whole. The European Council called for further measures to reduce illegal migration and prevent a return to the uncontrolled flows of 2015. The European Council reconfirms that a precondition for a functioning EU policy relies on a comprehensive approach to migration which combines more effective control of the EU´s external borders, increased external action and the internal aspects, in line with our principles and values. The European Council conclusions, 28 June 2018 were issued, since 2015 a number of measures have been put in place to achieve the effective control of the EU's external borders. As a result, the number of detected illegal border crossings into the EU is down 96% from its peak in October 2015.
